1. INTRODUCTION

MEASAT Global Berhad (“MGB”) and each of the group companies of and affiliated to MGB (each a “Company”) strictly prohibits bribery and corruption in all its businesses. The Company adopts a ZERO TOLERANCE APPROACH against all forms and acts of bribery and corruption, and upholds all applicable laws in relation to anti-bribery and corruption.

2. APPLICATION

This Gifts, Hospitality and Travel Policy (“Policy”) applies to:

- (i) all directors (executive and non-executive) and employees (permanent or contract) of the Company;
- (ii) suppliers, contractors, sub-contractors, consultants, agents, representatives and other parties performing work or services for or on behalf of the Company; and
- (iii) all parties or entities having a business relationship with the Company.

This Policy shall be effective on 1 June 2020.

3. GIFTS

As a general rule, the Company practices a “No Gift Policy”. In this respect, directors and employees are prohibited from directly or indirectly, giving or receiving gifts that may influence good judgement and decision making, subject to certain limited exceptions.

Further, prior to offering or accepting any gifts, the director or employee shall ensure that the criteria in Appendix A are adhere to.

3.1 Receiving Gifts

Subject to the exceptions set out below, directors and employees shall not, and shall ensure that their Relative¹ shall not solicit or accept gifts, whether onsite or offsite, from any Third Parties² engaging with the Company under any circumstances.

For the avoidance of doubt, the above prohibition does not apply to gifts received by the Relative arising from the Relative’s independent relationship with the Third Parties. To the extent the director or employee is aware of any independent relationship between his/her Relative with such a Third Party, such relationship shall be declared to the Company in accordance with Paragraph 5.7.5 (Conflict of Interest) of the ABC Policy.

In the event a director or employee is unable to politely refuse or return a gift given by a Third Party, such director or employee should assign a value to such gift based on market value and notify:

- the MGB Board (in the case of a director); or
- the Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”)/Chief Operating Officer (“COO”) (in the case of an employee), and immediately submit a copy of the completed “Gifts and Hospitality (“G&H”) Disclosure Form” appended as Appendix B:

¹ “Relative” includes, without limitation, spouse, siblings, parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren, spouse’s parents, grandparents, siblings, their spouse and children, uncles, aunts, cousins, daughters-in-law and sons-in-law.

² “Third Parties” includes, without limitation, agents, consultants, contractors, supplier, joint venture partners, consortium partners and proposed merger and acquisition targets.

- if the value of the gift exceeds the nominal value of RM500 (“Nominal Value”); or
- upon the cumulative value of a series of gifts received in a calendar year exceeds the Nominal Value.

The CEO/COO or MGB Board, as the case may be, will determine if the gift is considered appropriate and the required next course of action with respect thereto. In the event the CEO/COO or MGB Board, as the case may be, approves the acceptance of the gift, he/she must also determine the treatment of the gift, whether to:

- donate the gift to charity;
- hold it for departmental display;
- share with other employees in the department;
- permit it to be retained by the employee.

For the avoidance of doubt, in the event a gift is given by a Third Party to the Company (instead of directed specifically to an individual person), the person who receives the gift on behalf of the Company shall be responsible for making the notification and submitting the G&H Disclosure Form in relation to such gift, where applicable, in the same manner as if he/she is the actual recipient of the gift.

Exceptions to receiving gifts:

A director or employee may accept gifts in the following exceptional circumstances without disclosure, i.e. without submitting the G&H Disclosure Form:

- (i) gifts or hampers that are customarily distributed or given during festive seasons PROVIDED that the value of the gifts from any one party in aggregate does not exceed the Nominal Value;
- (ii) promotional gifts bearing the company logo, i.e. pens, mugs, calendars and umbrellas PROVIDED that the value of the gifts in aggregate does not exceed the Nominal Value at any one time; or
- (iii) gifts sponsored by any Third Parties for events organised by the Company PROVIDED that there are proper document trails of such request, receipt and distribution of gifts.

- the CEO/COO (in the case of an employee).

Exceptions to providing gifts:

Directors and employees may offer or provide the following gifts to Third Parties, but subject always to the LOA:

4. HOSPITALITY

Hospitality may come in many forms, such as entertainment, meals, accommodation, recreation (leisure activities), etc.

The Company recognises that the occasional offering or acceptance of a reasonable and modest level of hospitality in the normal course of business is a legitimate way to network and build good business relationships.

The value and nature of the hospitality must be appropriate for the circumstances and be provided in accordance with the law and local customs, and in an open and transparent manner.

Pursuant to the LOA, the authority in relation to the offering of hospitality resides with the MGB Board, CEO/COO and Heads of Department (“HODs”), subject to the respective value thresholds set out therein.

Further, prior to offering or accepting any hospitality, a director or employee shall ensure that the criteria in Appendix A are adhered to.

Hospitality that is extravagant or frequent may often appear inappropriate, and cannot be taken as business norm. Therefore, directors and employees should politely and appropriately decline any hospitality that is extravagant, lavish or excessive.

- the HOD (in the case of an employee);

- the CEO/COO (in the case of an employee); or
- the MGB Board (in the case of a director).

Exception to travel expenses:

The incurring and charging of travel expenses for business purposes or as provided under contracts for services (e.g. consultants/advisers providing services and charging the Company for travel expenses incurred).
