MEASAT-3 TO DISTRIBUTE THE HISTORY CHANNEL[®] AND CRIME & INVESTIGATION NETWORK[™]

Kuala Lumpur, 29 May 2007 - MEASAT Satellite Systems Sdn. Bhd. ("MEASAT") announced today the signing of an agreement with AETN All Asia Networks Pte Ltd ("AAAN"), a joint venture of A&E Television Networks and ASTRO All Asia Networks, for the distribution of The History Channel[®] and Crime & Investigation Network[™]. The channels will be distributed to pay TV operators across Hong Kong, Taiwan and South East Asia on the recently launched MEASAT-3 MCPC video platform.

"MEASAT-3 was specially designed as a high quality video distribution platform to meet the demanding needs of international broadcasters," said Terry Bleakley, MEASAT's Vice President – Sales & Marketing. "We are delighted to be selected by AAAN to support the distribution of these two new channels and will continue to provide our customers with satellite services of the highest quality and reliability."

Alan Hodges, Managing Director, Asia Pacific, A&E Television Networks said, "MEASAT have proved to be incredibly professional. They have a very proactive approach to client needs which means our viewers will enjoy an enriched quality viewing experience."

About MEASAT

MEASAT is a premium supplier of satellite communication services to Asia's leading broadcasters, DTH operators and telecom operators. The MEASAT satellite fleet comprising MEASAT-1, MEASAT-2 and the state-of-the-art MEASAT-3 satellite provides services to over 100 countries, representing more than 70% of the world's population. The fleet will be further enhanced in 2008 with the launch of the MEASAT-1R satellite.

Leveraging facilities at the MEASAT Teleport and Broadcast Centre, and working with a select group of world-class media partners including Astro, Pacific Century Matrix and STT, MEASAT provides a complete range of broadcast services including video playout, up-linking, and video turnaround to and from the key European and North American markets.
